(b) Interim Statements and Operating Reports.

- (1) The debtor in possession or chapter 11 trustee must file with the court a copy of each monthly interim statement and operating report submitted to the United States trustee from the date the chapter 11 case is commenced until the date a plan is confirmed or the case is dismissed or converted to another chapter under title 11.
- (2) Each interim statement and operating report must be filed on the date that such documents are submitted to the United States trustee, but not later than the 15th day of the month following expiration of the month which is the subject of the statement or report.

LBR 2016-1. COMPENSATION OF PROFESSIONAL PERSONS*(a) Interim Fee Applications.

(1) Form of Fee Application. An application for interim fees incurred or costs advanced by an attorney, accountant or other professional person, and a trustee or examiner must contain the following:

(A) A brief narrative history and report concerning the status of the case, including the following:

(i) Chapter 11. Applicant must describe the general operations of the debtor, stating whether the business of the debtor, if any, is being operated at a profit or loss, whether the business has sufficient operating cash flow, whether a plan has been filed, and if not, the prospects for reorganization and the anticipated date for the filing of a plan.

(ii) Chapter 7. Applicant must report the status of administration of the estate, discussing the actions taken to liquidate property of the estate, the property remaining to be administered, the reasons the estate is not in a position to be closed, and whether it is feasible to pay an interim dividend to creditors.

(iii) All Cases. Applicant must disclose the amount of money on hand in the estate and the estimated amount of other accrued expenses of administration. At the hearing on an application for interim fees, the applicant should be prepared to supplement the application by declaration or by testimony to inform the court of the current financial status of the debtor's estate.

(iv) Multiple Fee Applications. If more than 1 application for interim fees in a case is noticed for hearing at the same date and time, the narrative history provided in one of the applications may be incorporated by reference into the other interim fee applications to be heard contemporaneously by the court.

(v) Exception. A fee application submitted by an auctioneer, real estate broker, or appraiser does not have to comply with subsection (A) of this rule, except that auctioneers, unless otherwise ordered by the court, must file the report required by FRBP 6004(f) prior to receiving final compensation.

(B) The date of entry of the order approving the employment of the individual or firm for whom payment of fees or expenses is sought, and the date of the last fee application for the professional.

- (D) A brief narrative statement of the services rendered and the time expended during the period covered by the application.

  - (i) Date service was rendered.
  - (ii) Description of service. It is not sufficient to merely state “Research,” “Telephone Call,” “Court Appearance,” etc. Applicant must refer to the particular person, motion, discrete task performed, and other matters related to such service. A summary that lists a number of services under only 1 time period is not satisfactory.
  - (iii) Amount of time spent. A summary is not adequate. Time spent must be accounted for in tenths of an hour and broken down in detail by the specific task performed. Lumping of services is not satisfactory.
  - (iv) Identification of person who rendered service. If more than 1 person’s services are included in the application, applicant must identify the person who performed each item of service.
- (F) An application that seeks reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses must include a summary listing of all expenses by category (i.e., long distance telephone, photocopy costs, facsimile charges, travel, messenger and computer research). As to each unusual or costly expense item, the application must state:

  - (iii) The amount of the expense; and
  - (iv) An explanation of the expense.
- (G) Unless employment has been approved on a fixed fee, percentage fee, or contingent fee basis, the application must contain a listing of the hourly rates charged by each person whose services form a basis for the fees requested in the application.   - (i) The hourly rate and the periods each rate was in effect;

- (ii) The total hours in the application for which compensation is sought; and
    - (iii) The total fee requested in the application.
  - (H) A description of the professional education and experience of each of the individuals rendering services, including identification of the professional school attended, year of graduation, year admitted to practice, publications or other achievements, and explanation of any specialized background or expertise in bankruptcy-related matters.
  - (I) If the hourly rate has changed during the period covered by the application, the application must specify the rate that applies to the particular hours for which compensation is sought.
  - (J) A separately filed declaration from the client indicating that the client has reviewed the fee application and has no objection to it. If the client refuses to provide such a declaration, the professional must file a declaration describing the steps that were taken to obtain the client's declaration and the client's response thereto.
  - (K) A statement that the applicant has reviewed the requirements of this rule and that the application complies with this rule.
- (2) Notice of Interim Fee Application and Hearing.
- (A) In all cases where the employment of more than one professional person has been authorized by the court, a professional person who files an application for interim fees must give other professional persons employed in the case not less than 45 days notice of the date and time of the hearing. The notice of hearing must further state:

“Other professional persons retained pursuant to court approval may also seek approval of interim fees at this hearing, provided that they file and serve their applications in a timely manner. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, hearings on interim fee applications will not be scheduled less than 120 days apart.”
  - (B) Applicant must serve not less than 21 days notice of the hearing on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), the creditors' committee or the 20 largest unsecured creditors if no committee has been appointed, any other committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, the United States trustee, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002. The notice must identify the professional person requesting fees, the period covered by the interim application, the specific amounts requested for fees and reimbursement of expenses, the date, time and place of the hearing, and the deadline for filing and serving a written opposition.

- (C) In addition to the notice, a copy of the application, together with all supporting documents, must be served on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), any committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, and the United States trustee. A copy of the complete application must also be promptly furnished upon specific request to any other party in interest.
- (3) Objections. Any opposition or other responsive document by the United States trustee or other party in interest must be served and filed at least 14 days prior to the hearing in the form required by LBR 9013-1(f).
- (b) Motions to Approve Compensation Procedures in Chapter 11 Cases, Including Monthly Draw-down and Contingency or Success Fee Agreements. A professional person employed in a chapter 11 case may request approval for and modifications of draw-down procedures and an order allowing payment of interim compensation more frequently than once every 120 days.
- (c) Final Fee Application.
  - (1) Who Must File. The trustee, if any, and each professional person employed in the case must file a final fee application.
  - (2) Contents. An application for allowance and payment of final fees and expenses must contain the information required of an interim fee application under LBR 2016-1(a)(1).
  - (3) When Filed; Notice Required in Chapter 11 Cases.
    - (A) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a final fee application by the trustee, if any, and each professional person employed in a chapter 11 case must be filed and set for hearing as promptly as possible after confirmation of a plan.
    - (B) A final fee application must cover all of the services performed in the case, not just the last period for which fees are sought, and must seek approval of all prior interim fee awards.
    - (C) Applicant must serve not less than 21 days notice of the hearing on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), any committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, the United States trustee, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002. The notice must identify the person or entity requesting a final allowance of fees and expenses, the period covered by the final application, the specific amounts requested for fees and reimbursement of expenses, the date, time and place of the hearing, and the deadline for filing and serving a written opposition.
    - (D) In addition to the notice, a copy of the application, together with all supporting documents, must be served on the debtor or debtor in possession, the trustee (if any), any committee appointed in the case, counsel for any of the foregoing, and the United States trustee. A copy of the complete application must also be promptly furnished upon specific request to any other party in interest.

(4) When Filed; Notice Required in Chapter 7 Cases.

- (A) A chapter 7 trustee must give at least 30 days written notice of intent to file a final report and account to the attorney for the debtor, the trustee's attorney and accountant, if any, and any other entity entitled to claim payment payable as an administrative expense of the estate.
- (B) A professional person seeking compensation must file and serve an application for allowance and payment of final fees and expenses on the trustee within 21 days of the date of the mailing of the trustee's notice. The failure to timely to file an application may be deemed a waiver of compensation.
- (C) All final fee applications by professional persons must be set for hearing with the chapter 7 trustee's final application for allowance and payment of fees and expenses. Notice of a final fee application must be given by the chapter 7 trustee as part of the notice of the hearing on the trustee's request for compensation. A separate notice by the applicant is not required.

(5) Objections. Any opposition or other responsive document by the United States trustee or other party in interest must be served and filed at least 14 days prior to the hearing in the form required by LBR 9013-1(f).

(d) Fee Examiner. The court may, either on its own motion or on the motion of a party in interest, with or without a hearing, exercise its discretion to appoint a fee examiner to review fee applications and make recommendations to the court for approval.

- (3) Locksmith charges to secure the debtor's real property or business; and
- (4) Security services to safeguard the debtor's real or personal property.

If the trustee disburses more than the Authorized Allocation to pay emergency expenses and other expenses for which the Authorized Allocation may be used, the trustee must file and serve a cash disbursement motion, as described in subsection (f) of this rule, within 7 days after such expenses are paid.

- (e) Procedures for Employment of Paraprofessionals and Payment of Paraprofessional Fees and Expenses. A trustee must obtain court approval to employ and to pay a paraprofessional.

- (1) Definition. The term “paraprofessional” includes all persons or entities other than “professionals” who perform services at the trustee’s request and seek payment for services and expenses directly from the bankruptcy estate, including an agent, a field representative, an adjuster, and a tax preparer.
- (2) Employment. A trustee may seek court approval to employ a paraprofessional by filing an employment application using court-approved form F 2016-2.1.APP.TRUSTEE.EMPLOY. The court’s approval of the employment of any paraprofessional is not a judicial determination as to whether services of the paraprofessional constitute “trustee services.” The following is a nonexclusive list of services that the court deems “trustee services” subject to the limitation on compensation contained in 11 U.S.C. § 326(a):

- (A) Review schedules;
- (B) Acceptance and qualification as a trustee;
- (C) Routine investigation regarding location and status of assets;
- (D) Initial contact with lessors, secured creditors, assignee for benefit creditors, etc., if same can be accomplished from office;
- (E) Turnover or inspection of documents, such as bank documents;
- (F) UCC search review;
- (G) Recruit and contract appraisers, brokers, and professionals;
- (H) Mail forwarding notices;
- (I) Routine collection of accounts receivable;
- (J) Letters regarding compliance with LBR 2016-1;
- (K) Conduct 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) examinations;

- (M) Routine motions to dismiss;
- (N) 11 U.S.C. § 707(b) referral to United States trustee;
- (O) Routine documentation of notices of sale, abandonment, compromise, etc.;
- (P) Appear at hearings on routine motions;
- (Q) Review and execute certificates of sale, deed, or other transfer documents;
- (R) Prepare and file notifications of asset case;
- (S) Prepare and file cash disbursement motions and necessary attachments;
- (T) Prepare exhibits to operating reports;
- (U) Prepare quarterly bond reports;
- (V) Prepare trustee’s interim reports;
- (W) Routine claims review and objection;

- (AA) Prepare and file notices and motions to abandon assets and related orders;
- (BB) Attend sales;
- (CC) Monitor litigation;
- (DD) Answer routine creditor correspondence and phone calls;
- (EE) Prepare and file applications to employ paraprofessionals;
- (FF) Review and comment on professional fee applications;
- (GG) Participate in audits;
- (HH) Answer United States trustee questions;
- (II) Close and open bank accounts;
- (JJ) Verify proposed disbursements;
- (KK) Post receipts and disbursements;
- (LL) Prepare details and calculations for payment of dividend;
- (MM) Prepare dividend checks;
- (NN) Organize and research bills;
- (OO) Prepare checks for the trustee's signature;
- (PP) Prepare internal cash summary sheets;
- (QQ) Reconcile bank accounts;
- (RR) Prepare and make deposits; and
- (SS) Additional routine work necessary for administration of the estate.

(3) Reimbursement of Fees and Expenses. A trustee may pay a paraprofessional only upon specific order of the court.

- (A) If the paraprofessional or trustee contends that the paraprofessional's services are not "trustee services," the trustee or paraprofessional must present evidence to support that contention. Absent adequate proof, the court may find that the services of the paraprofessional are "trustee services" subject to the limitation on compensation under 11 U.S.C. § 326(a).
- (B) If a trustee refuses or neglects to file a fee application for the paraprofessional, the paraprofessional may file a separate fee application pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330. In addition to fulfilling the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 330, FRBP 2014 and these rules, the paraprofessional's fee application must include: (i) a declaration explaining why a separate fee application is necessary; and (ii) evidence establishing which services are "trustee services" and which are not. The paraprofessional must serve any separate fee application on the trustee, debtor, debtor's counsel (if any), the United States trustee, and all professionals and other paraprofessionals employed in the case, and must give notice of the application to all creditors.

(f) Cash Disbursements Motion.

- (1) Filing and Service. If the trustee wishes to pay expenses not authorized by this rule from estate funds, the trustee must file a cash disbursements motion to obtain court approval of payments for emergency expenses and all other expenses the trustee deems necessary for effective administration of the case. The cash disbursements motion must be in substantially the same form as court-approved form F 2016-2.2.MOTION.TRUSTEE.DISBURSE and may be brought under LBR 9013-1(o). The trustee must serve the motion on the debtor, debtor's counsel (if any), the United States trustee, holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims, and any other party in interest entitled to notice under FRBP 2002. If a timely objection is filed, the trustee must comply with LBR 9013-1(o)(4).

- (2) Hearing. The court may set a hearing on a cash disbursements motion regardless of whether an objection is filed. However, if the court does not advise the trustee of a hearing on the motion within 7 days after the motion is filed, the trustee may disburse funds from the estate to pay the expenses referred to in the motion to the extent the trustee deems it necessary, pending an order of the court. If, thereafter, the trustee receives notice that the court has issued an order in which the cash disbursement motion has been disapproved in whole or in part, or that the court has set a hearing, the trustee must stop paying the expenses for which authorization was sought in the motion or otherwise comply with the provisions of the order. The trustee may file a motion for reconsideration pursuant to LBR 9013-4.
- (3) Personal Liability and Disclosure. Except as provided in this rule, a trustee who makes a disbursement without prior court approval may be personally liable to the estate for the amount of the disbursement. All disbursements made by the trustee pursuant to this rule must be disclosed in the trustee's final report and in all applications for fees or costs by the trustee and by paraprofessionals employed in the case by the trustee.
- (g) Nonexclusive Remedy. Nothing in this rule precludes the trustee from seeking court approval to disburse estate funds by way of a noticed motion filed and served pursuant to LBR 9013-1.

LBR 2070-1. CHAPTER 7 OPERATING CASES

- (a) Periods Not Exceeding 30 Days. For a period not exceeding 30 days from the date of the trustee's appointment, a trustee may operate the business of a chapter 7 debtor and pay any actual and necessary expenses from the Authorized Allocation permitted under LBR 2016-2(a) without a court order.
- (b) Periods Exceeding 30 Days. To operate the business beyond such 30-day period, the trustee must, prior to expiration of the 30-day period, file and serve a motion for authorization to operate the debtor's business under 11 U.S.C. § 721. The motion must state the approximate length of time the trustee intends to operate the business and be supported by evidence that justifies operation of the business and satisfies the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 721.
- (c) Authorization Not to Exceed 1 Year. The trustee may seek approval to operate the debtor's business for a period not exceeding 1 year.

- (d) Disbursement of Estate Funds Pending Authorization. The court may hold a hearing on the trustee's motion after the expiration of the 30-day period, but the trustee may not disburse estate funds other than the Authorized Allocation after the 30-day period except upon specific order of the court.
- (e) Effect of Order. An order authorizing the trustee to operate the debtor's business does not excuse the trustee from obtaining appropriate authorization for cash disbursements under LBR 2016-2(f), except to the extent that the operating order expressly approves specific expenditures from the estate.

LBR 2072-1. NOTICE TO OTHER COURTS

- (a) Notice of Bankruptcy Petition. Notice of the filing of a bankruptcy petition in this district must be given by the debtor or debtor's counsel, at the earliest possible date, to:
  - (1) The clerk of any federal or state court in which the debtor is a party to pending litigation or other proceedings; and
  - (2) The federal or state judge to whom the matter is assigned, all counsel of record in the matter, and to all parties to the action not represented by counsel.
- (b) Effect of Not Giving Notice. The failure to give the notice required by subsection (a) of this rule may constitute cause for annulment of the stay imposed by 11 U.S.C. §§ 362, 922, 1201, or 1301, or may result in the imposition of sanctions or other relief.

LBR 2081-1. CHAPTER 11 CASES

- (a) Motions Requiring Emergency or Expedited Relief. Subject to FRBP 6003, the movant may request the following motions be set for hearing using the procedures set forth in LBR 9075-1:

  - (5) Request for regularly scheduled hearing dates. Upon request of a debtor, the court may establish a fixed date and time for hearing all motions and other matters in a chapter 11 case. Once ordered, the dates and time, and exceptions, if any, will be made available through the clerk's office and posted in advance on the court's website;
  - (6) Motion to pay prepetition payroll and to honor prepetition employment procedures. The motion must be supported by evidence that establishes:

- (A) The employees are still employed;

  - (D) The prospect of reorganization;
  - (E) Whether the employees are insiders;
  - (F) Whether the employees' claims are within the limits established by 11 U.S.C. § 507; and
  - (G) The payment will not render the estate administratively insolvent;
- (7) Motion to honor and comply with customer obligations and deposits. The motion must be supported by evidence that relief is essential to business operations and customer confidence or that the estate may suffer postpetition damages that would prejudice creditors, the reorganization, or the value of property of the estate;
- (8) Motion to pay prepetition taxes. The motion must be supported by evidence that establishes:
- (A) The necessity for payment;
  - (B) The prospect of reorganization;
  - (C) The means to pay;

- (10) Motion for order establishing procedures for sale of estate's assets;
- (11) Appointment of a patient care ombudsman under 11 U.S.C. § 333; and
- (12) Other motions where special circumstances exist. The motion must be supported by evidence that exigent circumstances exist justifying an expedited hearing.
- (b) Prepackaged Plans. A hearing on a motion for order confirming a chapter 11 plan upon which voting was conducted before commencement of the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1126(b) must be scheduled, if practicable, no more than 30 days after the order for relief.

(c) Severance Compensation or Employee Incentive Motions.

- (1) Notice. A motion for approval of a severance compensation package or employee incentive program must be heard on regular notice, absent exigent circumstances.
- (2) Standard. The motion must state whether the employee is an insider. If so, the motion must state whether the insider has a bona fide job offer from another business at the same or greater rate of compensation and establish the elements of 11 U.S.C. § 503(c).

LBR 2081-2. CHAPTER 11 DEBTORS WHO ARE INDIVIDUALS

A chapter 11 debtor who is an individual may request that the court authorize use of LBR forms approved by the court for use solely by debtors who are individuals, and the debtor can consult the court's website to determine which judges mandate or otherwise authorize use of such forms.

LBR 2090-1. ATTORNEYS – ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

(a) Appearance By Attorneys Admitted to Practice Before the District Court.

- (1) Attorney. An attorney admitted to practice before the district court may practice before the bankruptcy court. An attorney who is not admitted to the bar of, or permitted to practice before, the district court may not appear before the court on behalf of a person or entity, except as provided by this rule. Attorneys appearing before the court must have read the FRBP, F.R.Civ.P., F.R.Evid., and these rules in their entirety.
